

A TALK WITH VIRGINIA GRISE

We're Not Dogs: Displacement and Environmental Justice in the Staging of Their Dogs Came With Them

Award-winning theater artist Virginia Grise is a 2017 Agnese Nelms Haury Visiting Fellow. She will join writer and University of Arizona associate professor Manuel Muñoz; Marc David Pinate, artistic director of Borderlands Theater; and New York-based actor Manny Rivera in a conversation about the process of adapting Helena Maria Viramontes' novel Their Dogs Came with Them for the stage.

Virginia Grise is a recipient of the Whiting Writers' Award, Princess Grace Award in Theatre Directing and the Yale Drama Series Award. Her published work includes blu (Yale University Press), The Panza Monologues co-written with Irma Mayorga (University of Texas Press), an edited volume of Zapatista communiqués titled Conversations with Don Durito (Autonomedia Press), and Your Healing is Killing Me (forthcoming, Plays Inverse Press). She earned her MFA from the California Institute of the Arts and currently lives and writes in the Bronx.

Friday, April 21
12-1:30pm

University of Arizona, ENR2 building
1064 E. Lowell Street, Room 604

RSVP

Lunch will be included.
RSVP is required by April 13:

<http://www.environment.arizona.edu/webform/lunch-virginia-grise>

