Plating the Desert
Catering to the Environment. Serving Art and Food on One Single Plate.

Visit the Student Union Memorial Gallery between March 7 – March 25* and see pieces expressing the intersection of environment, desert food, and community.

Ceramic plates created by UA and Tucson High students will be exhibited, along with other pieces from k-12 students at the school sites from the UA Community and School Garden class, The Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona, and local community members.

Come for the opening event on March 8, from 6:00-8:00 pm.

*note: the exhibit is closed the week of March 14 for spring break
